Name: ………………................ 	 Klasse: ………… 	 Datum: ……………........

Would like to, want to Übungen 	 ARBEITSBLATT

Beispiele für „would like to" und „want to:

I would like to go for a walk. Ich möchte einen Spaziergang machen.

I 'd like to go for a walk. (Kurzform von „would like to")

W*ould you like to* go for a walk? Möchtest du einen Spaziergang machen?

I wouldn't like to do it now. Ich möchte es jetzt nicht machen.

I want to eat this cake! Ich will diesen Kuchen essen. (unfreundlich)

Does he want to eat this cake? Will er diesen Kuchen essen?

---

1. Setze „would like to" für die freundlichen Frage und das Verb ein.

see have visit make talk go

We _____ _____ _____ _____ dinner.

We _____ _____ _____ _____ a pizza.

I _____ _____ _____ _____ to a restaurant.

Jane _____ _____ _____ _____ the film.

They _____ _____ _____ _____ London

I _____ _____ _____ _____ to you.

2. Setze „would like to" sowie das passende Verb als Frage ein.

_____ you _____ _____ _____ grandpa?

_____ they _____ _____ _____ to the cinema today?

_____ you _____ _____ _____ the homework now?

_____ Tom _____ _____ _____ some sandwiches?

_____ they _____ _____ _____ here?

_____ Ann _____ _____ _____ a ticket for a concert?

Englisch: Would like to, want to Übungen

Name: …………………...............   Klasse: …………   Datum: ……………........

3. Setze „would't like to" (Verneinung) sowie das passende Verb ein.

go   see   make   visit   talk

I _____ _____ _____ _____ the film.

We _____ _____ _____ _____ Birmingham.

He _____ _____ _____ _____ to the teacher.

We _____ _____ _____ _____ breakfast.

I _____ _____ _____ _____ to the doctor.

4. Setze „want (wants) to" und das Verb ein.

They _____ _____ _____ here beause it's late.

They _____ _____ _____ to the cinema today. They can't do it tomorrow.

I _____ _____ _____ the homework now. My teacher is hard.

We _____ _____ _____ tennis. It's the last chance this week.

Karen _____ _____ _____ a ticket for a concert.

5. Setze „don't want to" / „doesn't want to" sowie das Verb ein.

I _____ _____ _____ _____ the homework now. My teacher is not hard. (to do)

We _____ _____ _____ _____ football. We can play it next week. (to play)

Julia _____ _____ _____ _____ a new computer. She has got one. (to buy)

6. Bilde Fragen mit „want to" und „to do".

_____ he _____ _____ _____ his sandwich? (to eat)

_____ we _____ _____ _____ in the park? (to play)

_____ she _____ _____ _____ a new computer? (to buy)

Name: …………………................   Klasse: …………   Datum: ……………........

Would like to, want to Übungen   LÖSUNGEN

Beispiele für „would like to" und „want to:

I would like to go for a walk. Ich möchte einen Spaziergang machen.

I 'd like to go for a walk. (Kurzform von „would like to")

W*ould you like to* go for a walk? Möchtest du einen Spaziergang machen?

I wouldn't like to do it now. Ich möchte es jetzt nicht machen.

I want to eat this cake! Ich will diesen Kuchen essen*.* (unfreundlich)

Does he want to eat this cake? Will er diesen Kuchen essen?

---

1. Setze „would like to" für die freundlichen Frage und das Verb ein.

see have visit   make talk go

We would like to have dinner.

We would like to make a pizza.

I would like to go to a restaurant.

Jane would like to see the film.

They would like to visit London

I would like to talk to you.

2. Setze „would like to" sowie das passende Verb als Frage ein.

Would you like to visit grandpa?

Would they like to go to the cinema today?

Would you like to do the homework now?

Would Tom like to eat some sandwiches?

Would they like to wait here?

Would Ann like to get a ticket for a concert?

Name: …………………................   Klasse: …………   Datum: ……………........

3. Setze „would't like to" (Verneinung) sowie das passende Verb ein.

go see make visit talk

I wouldn't like to see the film.

We wouldn't like to visit Birmingham.

He wouldn't like to talk to the teacher.

We wouldn't like to make breakfast.

I wouldn't like to go to the doctor.

4. Setze „want (wants) to" und das Verb ein.

They want to wait here beause it's late.

They want to go to the cinema today. They can't do it tomorrow.

I want to do the homework now. My teacher is hard.

We want to play tennis. It's the last chance this week.

Karen wants to buy a ticket for a concert.

5. Setze „don't want to" / „doesn't want to" sowie das Verb ein.

I don't want to do the homework now. My teacher is not hard. (to do)

We don't want to play football. We can play it next week. (to play)

Julia doesn't want to buy a new computer. She has got a good one. (to buy)

6. Bilde Fragen mit „want to" und „to do".

Does he want to eat his sandwich? (to eat)

Do we want to play in the park? (to play)

Does she want to buy a new computer? (to buy)