

Name: Klasse: Datum:

Englisch: one/ones

ARBEITSBLATT 1

What sort of tea would you like? The dark one (Singular).
I like your shoes and I like the ones in the shop (Plural).

One oder ones?

1. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Just look at those T shirts!

1. Which T-Shirts? Which _____?
2. The T-Shirts in that shop window over there. Which _____?
3. Oh yes. They're nice. I like the red T-Shirt. Which _____?
4. I do, too. But I think the blue T-Shirt is nice, too. Which _____?
5. Let's go inside. I'll try the red T-Shirt. Which _____?

2. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Just look at those T-Shirts!

1. Oh look! They have some yellow T-Shirts, too. _____
2. I'll try a red T shirt and a yellow T-Shirt. _____ / _____
3. You can try a blue T-Shirt. _____
4. Oh, the yellow T-Shirt is great but it's too expensive. _____
5. Have they got a cheaper T-Shirt? _____

Name: Klasse: Datum:

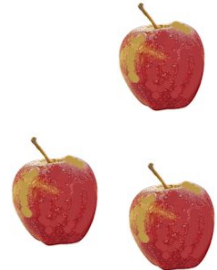

Englisch: one/ones

ARBEITSBLATT 2

3. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Jake is at the market (Part 1)

1. I would like some apples. The red apples look nice. _____

2. Which apples did you say? The green apples? _____ / _____

3. No, the red apples. Can you give me three please? _____

4. Yes, of course. Are these small apples OK? _____

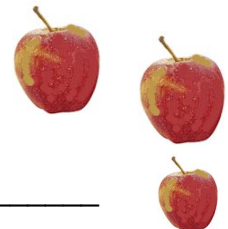

5. Or would you prefer the larger apples? _____

6. I'll take this apple. _____

4. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Jake is at the market (Part 2)

1. Two large apples and one small apple, please. _____ / _____

2. I would also like two melons – that melon and this melon. _____ / _____

3. OK. How about some grapes? Do you like green grapes? _____

4. Yes, I do. Can I try a green grape? _____

5. Great! I'll take the green grapes over there. _____

Name: Klasse: Datum:

Englisch-Test: one/ones

ARBEITSBLATT 3

Wähle zwischen „one“ (Singular) oder „ones“ (Plural).

5. Ersetze die unterstrichenen Wörter und schreibe den Satz auf.

1. The blue dress is OK, but I prefer the red dress.

_____.

2. I've made some muffins. Would you like a chocolate muffin?

_____?

3. Do you like cats? Yes, but only the very small cats.

_____.

4. Which photo do you like best? The photo of you in the London Eye.

_____.

5. I like modern buildings but my friend likes old buildings.

_____.

6. There are so many programmes on TV but I like the funny programmes.

_____.

7. We must answer the emails from Lucy and the emails from Jake.

_____.

8. John has two pens – a red pen and a green pen.

_____.

9. Pupils can get good marks. Especially the pupils who work hard.

_____.

10. There are so many pop groups but the English pop groups are the best.

_____.

Name:

Klasse:

Datum:

Englisch: one/ones

LÖSUNGEN 1

What sort of tea would you like? The dark one (Singular).
I like your shoes and I like the ones in the shop (Plural).

One oder ones?

1. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Just look at those T shirts!

1. Which T-Shirts? Which ones?
2. The T-Shirts in that shop window over there. Which ones?
3. Oh yes. They're nice. I like the red T-Shirt. Which one?
4. I do, too. But I think the blue T-Shirt is nice, too. Which one?
5. Let's go inside. I'll try the red T-Shirt. Which one?

2. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Just look at those T-Shirts!

1. Oh look! They have some yellow T-Shirts, too. ones
2. I'll try a red T shirt and a yellow T-Shirt. one/one
3. You can try a blue T-Shirt. one
4. Oh, the yellow T-Shirt is great but it's too expensive. one
5. Have they got a cheaper T-Shirt? one

Name: Klasse: Datum:

Englisch: one/ones

LÖSUNGEN 2

3. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Jake is at the market (Part 1)

1. I would like some apples. The red apples look nice. ones

2. Which apples did you say? The green apples? ones/ones

3. No, the red apples. Can you give me three please? ones

4. Yes, of course. Are these small apples OK? ones

5. Or would you prefer the larger apples? ones

6. I'll take this apple. one

4. Wähle „one“ oder „ones“ für die markierten Satzteile aus.

Jake is at the market (Part 2)

1. Two large apples and one small apple, please. ones/one

2. I would also like two melons – that melon and this melon. one/one

3. OK. How about some grapes? Do you like green grapes? ones

4. Yes, I do. Can I try a green grape? one

5. Great! I'll take the green grapes over there. ones

Name: Klasse: Datum:

Englisch-Test: one/ones

LÖSUNGEN 3

Wähle zwischen „one“ (Singular) oder „ones“ (Plural).

5. Ersetze die unterstrichenen Wörter und schreibe den Satz auf.

1. The blue dress is OK, but I prefer the red dress.

The blue dress is OK, but I prefer the red one.

2. I've made some muffins. Would you like a chocolate muffin?

I've made some muffins. Would you like a chocolate one?

3. Do you like cats? Yes, but only the very small cats.

Do you like cats? Yes, but only the very small ones.

4. Which photo do you like best? The photo of you in the London Eye.

Which photo do you like best? The one of you in the London Eye.

5. I like modern buildings but my friend likes old buildings.

I like modern buildings but my friend likes old ones.

6. There are so many programmes on TV but I like the funny programmes.

There are so many programmes on TV but I like the funny ones.

7. We must answer the emails from Lucy and the emails from Jake.

We must answer the emails from Lucy and the ones from Jake.

8. John has two pens – a red pen and a green pen.

John has two pens – a red one and a green one.

9. Pupils can get good marks. Especially the pupils who work hard.

Pupils can get good marks. Especially the ones who work hard.

10. There are so many pop groups but the English pop groups are the best.

There are so many pop groups but the English ones are the best.